

NATURE ON YOUR DOORSTEP SHORT COURSES 2019

All courses take place at High Elms Country Park unless stated

11th February - Identification of Trees & Twigs in Winter | 9.30am to 12.30pm | £12

An introduction to some of our key native tree species and how they can be identified.

14th March - Introduction to Badger Ecology & Field Signs | 10am to 4pm | £25

A close look at the biology and ecology of badgers, how to survey them and their threats.

5th April - Introduction to Bat Ecology (Crystal Palace) | 3.30pm to 9.30pm | £25

Covering local species, conservation, survey techniques and a bat walk at Crystal Palace Park.

27th April - Pond Dipping for Adults | 9.30am to 12pm | £12

Introduction to our freshwater pond habitats and its inhabitants.

7th May - Identifying Trees in Leaf | 10am to 12.30pm | £12

Introduction to some of our key native tree species and how they can be identified in summer.

4th June - Invasive Species | 10am to 12.30pm | £12

Examining common invasive species found in Bromley's parks and woodlands, the problems they can cause and how they are managed.

14th June - Introduction to British Orchids | 10am to 12.30pm | £12

Learn about British Orchids and how to identify them.

25th July - Introduction to Wildflowers | 10am to 4pm | £25

Learn about the wonderful wildflowers in our meadow and how to identify them.

6th August - Introduction to Camera Trapping | 10am to 4pm | £25

This course aims to enable participants to be able to get the most out of their camera traps.

21st September - Introduction to Bat Ecology | 3pm to 9pm | £25

Covering local species, conservation, survey techniques and a bat walk at High Elms Country Park.

4th October - Introduction to Badger Ecology & Field Signs | 10am to 4pm | £25

A close look at the biology and ecology of badgers, how to survey them and their threats.

29th October - Introduction to Small Mammals | 10am to 4pm | £25

Introduction to the ecology of common species, key identifying features and survey techniques.

21st November - Gardening for Wildlife | 10am to 4pm | £25

Introduction to managing your garden to promote wildlife and biodiversity.

4th December - Garden Ponds for Wildlife | 10am to 4pm | £25

Introduction to managing your pond to promote wildlife and biodiversity.

For course details, timings, and to book visit:

www.bromleyparks.co.uk/booking or phone 01689 860571