

Tree Stories

Read the story about the tree and answer the questions below:

How did the story make you feel?

Who were the main characters in the story and how would you describe them?

What type of tree does the story focus on and how would you describe it?

What do you think is the main message of the story (what did you learn from the story)?

Challenge! Try writing a different ending for the story in the space below.

What would you like people to learn from your story?

In the space below, draw a picture that represents the story:

